English Breakfast

A traditionally 'English' tea prepared from the best Indian and Ceylon teas and enjoyed by customers from all parts of the world. This produces a refreshing strong cup enjoyed at any time of the day. This quick-brewing tea benefits from adding a splash of milk.

Earl Grey

Gillards blend of this world-famous tea is exclusive, hand blended using a selection of finest China teas and carefully infused with oil of bergamot orange. Named for Charles, 2nd Earl Grey, British Prime Minister 1830-1834 who was reputedly given some tea flavoured with bergamot-probably a diplomatic gift.
Earl Grey is best taken black or with a slice of lemon.

Peppermint

For that after dinner cuppa when the food has been a bit too rich, is a great digestive.

Chamomile

Selected for its high-quality flowers, our Egyptian Chamomile tea is truly delightful. This herbal tea has long been consumed as a natural health remedy. Naturally, caffeine-free Chamomile tea is loaded with antioxidants and has properties that may aid sleep and digestion.

Bath City Blend

Developed in 1888 to suit the particularly hard water of the city of Bath this makes a superb pot of tea where the water has a high lime content.

Jane Austin Blend

Named in honour of the world-famous novelist, a resident of Bath and a reputed tea-lover. Gillards of Bath, a long-standing blend recreates three fine China teas into a delicate tea that was enjoyed throughout the 18th Century. This delicate tea is best served without milk. "But indeed, I would rather have nothing but tea" - Jane Austen

Lady Wistledown Blend

SPILLING THE TEA - An extraordinary blend of finest black tea, rose petals, rosehip and blackberry leaves producing a delicious and wonderfully floral note, reminiscent of an English rose garden.

Gunpowder Green

Probably the most popular green tea our Formosa Gunpowder Green tea has a strong flavour and aroma, this tea acquired its name from its similarity in appearance to old-fashioned gunpowder. Taiwan has long been known throughout Asia as producing the best gunpowder green teas. The steamed leaves are rolled into pellets resembling gunpowder which unfurl to retake their original form once brewed.

Henry Gillard founded Gillards of Bath in 1888 in the world heritage city of Bath, opening his first shop on New Bond Street and later moving to Broad Street. This family-run business developed its own speciality tea blends and sourced the finest coffee beans and drinking chocolate from all over the world. Today Gillards of Bath is still run as an artisan family business, working to a traditional method where every process is carefully executed by hand using only the highest quality of ingredients.
